Concerns or Complaints |

The welfare of the school community is best addressed by concerns and complaints being openly and fairly expressed. At Middleton Grange School the Concerns or Complaints Policy is based on the model proposed in the Gospel of Matthew 18 vs 15 'If your brother sins against you, go and show him his fault, just between the two of you. If he listens to you, you have won your brother over.'

As a State Integrated School, the Middleton Grange School Board (Board) requires that all aspects of this policy be guided by the Special Character Policy.

The Middleton Grange School Board seeks to

- outline steps the School community should take to assist in resolving a concern or complaint.
- ensure appropriate processes are in place to deal with concerns and complaints.
- ensure that all parties are able to express concerns or complaints to each other openly.
- achieve the resolution of any concerns or complaints.

7. All statutory requirements will be met.
8. Appropriate records will be established and maintained once resolution is achieved.
9. Appropriate professional development and resources will be made available to staff who deal with concerns and complaints.

The Associate Principal will contact the party bringing the concern or complaint within 48 hours of receiving notice of the concern or complaint and work at resolving the issue.

Conflict may be defined as the absence of peace in a relationship or about a situation.

Whenever people interact with one conflict can arise and there is potential for a difference of opinion or purpose. Conflict is recognised as being a normal part of life. In dealing with conflicts Middleton Grange School encourages peace-making based on Biblical principles to bring about personal reconciliation and a just settlement of substantive issues.

Important principles in dealing with conflict include:

1. All staff and members of the Board to be aware of Biblical principles and processes of conflict resolution.
2. These principles to be communicated to parents and students by the 'Communicating Your Concerns or Complaint' pamphlet and will be published in the Staff Handbook.
3. Recognise conflict resolution is aided by:

 - Reconciliation between parties
 - Education and/or new ways of doing things
 - Engaging in continued conflict or confrontation restorative processes to correct an injustice.
5. In the event of a major issue affecting the school or the inability of parties to resolve conflict a meeting of the Board Concerns and Complaints Committee is to be convened.

Conflict Resolution Policy

1. Encourage each person to see conflict as an opportunity for growth in obedience to God and witness; to recognise God can use conflict for good (1 Corinthians 10:31; Genesis 50:19-20; Romans 8:28).
2. Encourage self-examination first; accepting responsibility for each person's own contribution to conflict before confronting others (Matthew 7:5).
3. Consider appropriate initial steps in resolution - i.e.:
 - Make the first move toward reconciliation (Matthew 5:23,24)
 - Perform acts of kindness and mercy; overlooking the offence (Proverbs 19:11).
 - Undertake constructive conversations (Matthew 18:15).
4. Constructive conversation; individual approach:
 - Go privately and express personal concerns or complaints (Matthew 18:15).
 - Affirm the relationship and a desire to work things out before discussing issues (2 Corinthians 2:5-8).
5. If no resolution is affected, approach again, this time taking one or two witnesses. The role of the witnesses is not to take sides but to act as supportive advisers to both parties and to help restore peace. It is not to provide evidence or to accuse.
6. If that approach does not bring resolution then the next three options available are to:
 - Choose to let the school decide the matter

OR

 - Take the matter to the Concerns and Complaints Committee of the Board

OR

 - Use an external advocacy service
