Special Character Responsibilities

Christ-centred Leadership by ensuring that the school's culture is protected and promoted for continuous improvement mainly through:

- Commitment to prayer and regular Bible reading
- The professional development of staff in Christian Education, specifically encouraging development in teaching as Christians in a deeply embedded and skilled way.
- Integrating the School's Special Character with the New Zealand Curriculum.
- Developing the school's Mission and Vision, including modelling Christian servanthood.
- Creating and maintaining an environment of life-long learning that encourages students to develop an instinct for Truth guided by Scripture and God's plan of redemption.
- Develop strong relationships based on Christian principles with pupils, staff and other members of the School community.

Senior Leadership Team Responsibilities

Personal Character and Conduct are shaped by the same biblically based, orthodox, evangelical Christian faith that provides the foundation for the school's special character. The DPHOMS will demonstrate an unqualified commitment to the school's special character.

Inspirational Leadership of the staff and students in the full life of the Middle School —e.g., assemblies, gatherings, sports, cultural, and arts events; staff meetings; and management meetings. Inspire staff, students, and parents to love and serve God for his glory.

Professional and Instructional Leadership of staff and students through the promotion of instructional pedagogies that are biblically based, knowledgeable in the best traditions, individually and culturally responsive, and with a presence across Middle School classrooms, educational events, professional development, and meetings.

Modelling and Mentoring to the Middleton Grange School community. The school desires to see these attributes expressed in its staff and graduates, including scriptural and academic rigour, pastoral availability, and advocacy for the vulnerable.

Embody the school ethos and encourage staff, students, and the wider community to respect the school's traditions and innovations deeply. This includes naturally expressing the fruit of the Holy Spirit and biblical hopefulness and righteousness.

Leadership of the School's Vision

Continuously promote the school's founding vision to staff, students, and parents.
